Broken: This week we will focus on our relationship with our kids. Sometimes we love 'em and sometimes we want to ___ 'em:-) You may want to have them present if you can cause I will conclude with some creative interaction between you and them! For more help in the area of relationships contact Bob Martin, who has offered his expertise, here: bmartin72@cfaith.com

Feb 17th we will have chili-dogs at 7:45ish following church. Come hang out with me and other guys. We'll project a basketball game, and make it a free nite! Food, Fun, Laughter
